[redacted] on Organizational and Personnel Changes

REFERENCE: Your memorandum dated 13 June 1957 addressed to the Chief, Management Staff, concerning Organizational and Personnel Changes

1. Pursuant to the request contained in the referenced memorandum to "send the whole package back to me in final form," I am transmitting subject proposals to you for submission to the Director of Central Intelligence.

2. This staff has reviewed the appropriate regulations and has prepared functional statements for the Executive Officer, the (Special) Assistant for Planning, and the Deputy Director (Coordination). A review of the mission of the Deputy Director (Intelligence) reveals no conflict (see Tab A) with the mission of the Deputy Director (Coordination). These organizational changes have not been coordinated by this staff.

3. It is to be noted that, in addition to the above organizational changes, proposed [redacted] contain the revised mission and functions of the Inspector General. This latter change was initiated by the Inspector General and recommendations have been received from the Deputy Director (Plans) and the Deputy Director (Intelligence).
